Child Raising

Let's try to develop links of communication with more people raising children!

“Hi, U-san! What is ‘Asobi-tai’? <Vol. 3>

“Asobi-tai” is the name of a volunteer group in Numazu. It started three years ago and there are 1,163 members as of August, 2015. They play with children and read picture books to kids at community support centers and nursery schools now. They’ll also advise parents if necessary. Each member uses his/her strongest points to support this activity. If you are over junior high school ages, and like children or are interested in child-raising, you can join the group. Please register yourself.

Go! Go! Azul Claro Numazu!

◆Let's go to the stadium to root for the team! A crucial stage for moving up to our longing, J-League!

Nakayama Masashi, a former member of Japan's national soccer team, has been welcomed into Azul Claro Numazu. The team is putting out a last spurt for the advancement. In order to move up to J-League, the team needs to satisfy the following conditions; the annual result within the forth, and the annual average attendance figure per host game of over 2000. Your big cheers will give the team a great impetus to the victory.

The two host games left are to be played at the athletic stadium in Fuji Overall Athletic Park (Fuji city, O-buchi). We really appreciate your huge cheers! Let's realize our dream of rooting for J-League team from Numazu! (The annual rank order of the team is the fifth as of Sep.20.)
